MY SUPPORT SYSTEM

You are loved and supported by so many people. These friends, family and others who love and support you are part of your support system. Think about some people who love and support you in your life- write their names or draw something that reminds you of them. On the second page, reflect on what they do for you!